

Governor Carney Order Flags at Half Staff for Fallen State Police Officer

Governor Carney this evening ordered both the U.S. and State flags to be flown at half-staff in memory of fallen Delaware State Police Corporal Stephen J. Ballard. Corporal Ballard was killed this afternoon valiantly protecting the community and fellow Delawareans in the line of duty.

Flags are to remain at half-staff until further notice.